The Cream of the Crop

CAPER (RB601)

A most unusual novelty. Many visitors remarked that it was more like an orchid than a daylily. 6 in widespread flowers, fluted petals, a velvety raspberry, sepals raspberry edged white. A flush of white above the small gold throat. 24", M., D. $15.00

CREST (6550 Kraus-Childs)

A near white self from the melon side. 5½ to 6 in. flowers are full formed and have an exquisite porcelain finish. Completely sun fast, remains open late, repeats. 34" scapes with 35 or more buds. Low multiple branching, excellent performer. Early midseason, midseason, D. $25.00

DEW KISS (Y 608)

The clarity of color of this pale greenish yellow is delightful. It is a self with no throat pattern, yet the green seems to radiate over the entire flower. The 7 in. flowers have 2 in. petals that are fluted and ruffled, a waxy sheen and full form. Erect 24 in. scapes with wide branching. Fr. M., Ext, Repeats. Evergreen. $25.00

DOUBLE CHALLENGE (6801 Kraur-Childs)

This is a rose pink that comes consistently double. 5" flower with petaloids uniformly placed. Fertile both ways and valuable in breeding doubles. 28" well branched scapes. M., repeats, D. $15.00

FRANKLY FABULOUS (M 603)

This enchanting beauty has near perfect form, the 6 in. flowers are round and open almost flat. 2 in. petals and 1½ in. sepals completely overlap. A luscious melon pink of heavy substance and satin smooth texture that grows pinker in the sun. The wide petals are very finely ruffled with just a thread of gold through the ruffling, this sets it apart from others in this color class and it is FRANKLY FABULOUS. Achievement Award winner Macon show. The 32 in. well branched scapes carry 30 or more buds. Early midseason and repets. D. J C. $50.00

MASCOT (P 629)

A 6 in. pink on 26" scape held just above 20 in. upright foliage. The beautiful pink flowers with gold throat have ruffled sepals and petals. Heavy sun fast substance, widespread form. Many buds to give a long season of bloom. Increases fast, ext. D. $25.00

PICARDY PEACH (P 712)

Large beautiful peach blend. The flowers are 6½ to 7 in. with almost 2 in. petals and 1 in. sepals. Opens wide to show the green gold throat, segments recurve at the tips, a lovely sheen over all. Substance heavy and sunfast, 32 in. scapes and 30 or more buds. Fr. Ext. M., Repeats. D. JC..... $25.00

SHELL RADIANCE (P 633)

This radiant shell or flesh pink has a porcelain finish and beautiful sheen when grown in full sun. The 5½ in. flowers are full formed with wide beautifully ruffled petals, just a trace of green at the base of the segments. There is perfect plant balance with the foliage coming well up to the 26 in. scape with low multiple branching. 30 or more buds. Fragrant. M., Repeats. D. JC. $25.00

SHOWMAN (P 610)

A perfect blending of apricot peach to give a self color except for the raised midrib of elusive bluish lavender. The very beautiful 6 in. flowers of full overlapping form have 2 in. petals and 1¼ in. sepals. If the days are extremely hot the color is frosted but the throat holds the deeper glowing color. 26 in. scapes hold the lovely flowers above clean deep green foliage. Heavy substance, smoothly finished, it comes into bloom early midseason and is a Showman through entire season. Ext. D. J. C. $50.00

SIGNET (P 922)

6 in. pink that remains pink regardless of the weather or the lighting. It is a shade deeper than usual conception of baby ribbon pink. The 1½ in. petals flair and are fluted, the 1 in. sepals recurve at tips, a flush of light yellow from the throat. Well budded 30 in. scapes. Remains open late and repeats. M., D. JC. $25.00

SPRING CAROUSEL (Y 602)

A small one to delight the arrangers. A lemon yellow, the perky 3½ in. flowers have gloxinia form with overlapping segments the wide petals are very ruffled, the sepals somestimes pinched with a slight twist at the ends. Blooms early on 26 in. well branched scapes, 35 buds when established. Sunfast, very fragrant. Ext. Ev. $10.00

TYCOON (R 81)

Medium to large bright velvety finished red. The full beautifully recurved flowers are 5½ to 6 in. with ruffled sepals and petals, sepals sometimes edged light tan, green gold throat. When established it takes the sun very well but like many fine reds does best if given afternoon shade. 28 in., midseason, D. $25.00
